- 3) From the Commissioner of Labour, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, Letter No.A1/9565/2008, dated 04.08.2008 and also on 24.09.2008.

ORDER:-

In the reference third read above, the Commissioner of Labour, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has stated that the Office of the Joint Commissioner of Labour stationing at Visakhapatnam Steel Plant, which was created in the G.O. first read above, was closed in the year 2002 and the said post was transferred to the Head Office. In view of Visakhapatnam Steel Plant's hectic expansion plans to 7.3 Mil. Tons., engaging of large number of Contract Labour besides the regular round the clock production activities, posting of Joint Commissioner of Labour would help the Visakhapatnam Steel Plant in promptly resolving many Industrial Relations Problems and other related issues. It has been further stated that Visakhapatnam Steel Plant would consider to reimburse the total expenditure on the establishment of the above office which includes the supporting staff of one Senior Assistant, one Junior Assistant, one Data Entry Operator and two Office Subordinates. An office building and also a vehicle shall be provided by the Visakhapatnam Steel Plant.

2. The Commissioner of Labour, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has further stated that in Visakhapatnam Steel Plant, there are about 12,500 permanent workers, 4,500 Officers/Managers and 17,000 Contract Labour. Keeping in view the present work load, it has been proposed to expand the Plant with an investment of Rs.8,000/- crores by 2010. During the course of expansion another 8000–10000 contract labourers are expected to be engaged in Visakhapatnam Steel Plant. At present there are 22 Registered Trade Unions operating in Visakhapatnam Steel Plant for the regular workmen besides 12 – 14 registered Trade Unions for the Contract Labour. The Commissioner of Labour, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has, therefore, requested the Government to consider the establishment of office of the Joint Commissioner of Labour at Visakhapatnam
